The Law of Attraction

Hope

At every dawn the sun hangs low
Its light is faint upon the morn.
The darkness holds a promise though:
A new day's waiting to be born

Let us focus once again on this truth: LIKE ATTRACTS LIKE.

Fear is the basis for destructive emotions: anger, judgment, hate, violence, depression; defeat, and so on. These are all self-generating so will breed more of the same.

The good news is that, faith produces faith, joy creates joy, optimism spreads optimism; love conceives love, and hope instills hope.

All of these emotions, good and bad, are self-fulfilling. Let's add another self-fulfilling truth: Expectation generates the expected results.

Now, what happens when you combine optimism with expectation?

What happens if you combine defeatism with expectation?

Which combination do you want to manifest?

The Universal Law of Attractions is the same whether it concerns individuals or populations. You can create the experience or situation you focus on. At this point in time it is crucial that the world-wide population focus on the positive. Therefore, you cannot give in to fear. It is time to plant the seeds of constructive expectations.

As you know, a glass half-full can be perceived in two ways, half full or half empty. Appreciate the half that is full and be grateful for it. At the same time picture the next glass as full to the brim, and hold that thought. Expect it to happen and have the patience to allow for the proper time, which you may not be able to determine. You may have valuable lessons to learn from the current situations. So leave the time up to God who, when you ask, always gives in accordance with your highest good. Maintain your confidence and know that all is in divine order.

Visualize your expected results. Make sure your expectations are steadfast. While you are visualizing, do so with focus on world-wide positive results, not just for yourself, your family, or your country. When millions world-wide see a beautiful picture for everyone's future, the power of positive expectations is exponential!

One can panic when everything seems to be in chaos, or one can project a confident attitude to change the situation. Which do you choose? The world is waiting for your choice, for the gates to the Golden Age of Peace, Love, Light, and Prosperity are ready to open. Help make it happen.

The Choice is Ours

We can overcome the forces against us,
because we are free spirits;
we have access to divine power;
we were given free will.
By refusing to be a victim,
we can create a life of our choosing.

We can overcome,
for we can make the choice
to take control of our life,
to be vibrantly healthy,
to be joyously happy,
to receive life's abundance.

We can overcome through
the strength of our will,
the power of our thoughts,
the authority of our intent,
the magnetism of our desire,
the belief in ourselves.

The Secret of Life

The path I selected was smooth and connected.
It was level and straight as can be.
So I sang a gay song as I hurried along,
feeling footloose and wonderfully free.

But I took a wrong turn and soon came to learn that not all roads are level and straight.
I tried to go back but got clear off the track, and was floundering, cursing my fate.

The road became rocky, as I tried to jockey
my load to relieve my poor back.
I continued to curse, but things only got worse;
I stumbled and lost my knapsack.

As I pondered my state and blamed God for my fate,
my misery constantly grew.
Till I met a fellow, quite peaceful and mellow,
with countenance constant and true.

The man stopped dead ahead, and he laughed as
he said,
"Perhaps I can give you a hand."
As he walked by my side with a smile in his stride,
the stones 'neath his feet turned to sand.

If you want to be free, you can just follow me,
and I'll tell you the secret of life.
For your path, you will find, can be rocky or kind,
and your days, filled with joy or with strife.

It is all up to you; your beliefs all come true.
You will manifest life as you go.
You control your own fate, for your thoughts all create,
and you always will reap what you sow.

For you get to choose if you win or you lose.
One's intentions return in like kind.
What comes back to you—this forever is true—
will depend on the state of your mind.
