

Blustery March, in its lighter moods, is a herald of spring. It is a month of turmoil and promise. Jack Frost still hovers nearby, but a cheery daffodil lifts its head and smiles at the world. Winter's fury may alternate with sunny days but cannot stop the changing season.

You are in the March of a new era. The winds of change may huff and puff, but they are bringing in the new. They bring hope and an exciting expectancy. The storm clouds may gather and taunt, yet their time is short. A late blizzard may be daunting, but cannot last. Winter's cycle is ending, and between the storms and chilling winds, new buds are peeping through the soil. New hope is bringing smiles to faces weary of the cold.

With the changing season comes an awakening. And in this spring of an era comes a great enlightenment of mankind. As the sun shines down on you, you are being flooded with new rays. New energies are enfolding you in the warmth of a new spring, energies to change your vibrational frequency, to release old entanglements, to bring new hope. Your very DNA is changing as you approach the Golden Age of prophecy, the Age of Enlightenment.

As your cells change from carbon based to crystalline, you too are becoming new. You have come to new realizations. You can no longer tolerate the forces of darkness that have held you in bondage. You are becoming aware of their devious manipulations, and will no longer put up with it. You are turning to the Light.

And yet, the howling of the March winds, their instability, and threatening ways, may overwhelm you at times. You wonder if "spring" is really on its way. That's where hope comes in. Never doubt that enlightenment is your destiny, if you choose it to be. The chaos and turbulence that challenge you are just the last throes of winter trying to hang on. It's days are numbered, but the segue into spring can be shortened and eased by faith. The cycle is passing. Don't shudder under the storm clouds. Look for the daffodils.

Have faith in the process. Know that all is in divine order. Know too that you can hasten or delay the outcome. Let your light shine. Keep a smile on your face. Maintain a positive attitude and spread only positive thoughts and words. See all of your brothers and sisters as your equal. Be an example of loving kindness. Use your power. Use your will. Align it with the will of God, and know that all things are possible.

Know that there is nothing to fear. Fear is a most destructive force, so do not allow it into your consciousness. Fear can be self-fulfilling. Faith and hope are also self-fulfilling. You can choose.

Be joyous! For joy is the gateway to Heaven, and joy will pave the way to Heaven on Earth. So no matter how the winds may howl, maintain your joy. Let it well up from within you, for it is not dependent on anything from outside.

Continued page 2

The resurrection is ahead of you. Not the resurrection of 2000 years ago, but the promised resurrection of the Christ consciousness. The spirit of the Christ is evolving within all those who have chosen to accept it. Just ahead of you is the Easter of a new era. Rejoice!

Hark to the Call

The call to waken now goes out.
It's time to dance, it's time to shout.
Let every heart with joy now sing.
At last we are awakening.

The age of darkness fades away.
More light creeps in each dawning day.
It's rays spread out o'er all the land.
The power of love is now at hand.

And every being here on Earth will feel the joy of its rebirth,
for every life will soon expand
as Holy Light now bathes the land.

The trees and flowers and wild life too will heed the call and hearken to the urge to let go of the past and bask anew in Light at last.

And anger, hate, and pain will fade
into the shadows. Unafraid, we will emerge from out the night
and be resplendent in the Light.